Eliza Jennings Senior Care Network Board Appoints New Trustee

Rick J. Weigle Jr. Joins Board of Trustees for Established Provider of Senior Services

CLEVELAND – February 22, 2008 – Eliza Jennings Senior Care Network, celebrating 120 years of providing services to older adults on Cleveland’s West Side, today announced the appointment of Rick J. Weigle Jr. as a new member of the Network Board of Trustees. The appointment of Weigle was effective February 7.

“A fundamental role of the Board is to ensure that the financial structure of the Network is adequate for the organization’s current needs and also for its long range goals and strategies,” said Deborah Lewis Hiller, President and Chief Executive Officer. “Rick’s extensive experience and expertise in the financial services industry as well as his interest in the mission of the organization will serve the Network well as it continues to care for older adults.”

Weigle joined Key Bank in 1981 and is currently Senior Vice President of Sales Administration for Key Private Bank. His areas of expertise include Sales Management, Performance Management, Finance and Administration, and Project and Initiative Management. His education includes a bachelor’s degree in economics from Allegheny College and graduate studies in business administration and marketing at Case Western Reserve University.

Weigle has been recognized by the Achievers Club, Presidents Club, Million and Eight Million Dollar Clubs, and received the Red Jacket Award for Sales excellence. His previous board experience and affiliations include Ronald McDonald House, United Way, YMCA of Greater Cleveland, Saint Ladislav Church and May Dugan Center.
